Description

A newly developed 'natural' range with early years specifically in mind. Made to our usual high standards and built to last, you can expect many years of learning through play. Reliable and versatile, this range will ensure your outdoor space becomes as much a part of the learning environment as the traditional classroom. The infant bench is a beautifully designed and manufactured product, perfect for outdoor seating for schools. Offering a lower height for younger children to sit on comfortably, this sturdy, strong and natural bench will withstand the daily rigours of the early years' environment.
